

Name:

University Quiz: True or False

	True	False
1. You have to pay your fees upfront for university.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. You don't have any free time at university.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. There are loans available to help you pay for food, books and accommodation whilst you are at university.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. You have to start repaying your loans when you're earning over £20,000.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
5. University stops you from getting work experience.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
6. You can live at home whilst studying at university.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
7. You have to do A levels to go to university.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
8. You can only study one subject at university.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
9. It is possible for you to get free money (which you don't have to repay) when you go to university.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
10. University is only for rich people.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

University Quiz: True or False

		True	False
1.	You have to pay your fees upfront for University. No. Student Finance England will provide a tuition fee loan.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
2.	You don't have any free time at University. No, with every course you will have free time, but how much varies across different subjects and universities.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
3.	There are loans available to help you pay for food, books and accommodation whilst you are at university. Yes Student Finance England can provide maintenance loans which are worked out using household incomes. The minimum maintenance loan available for 2018/19 is £3,224 (for students living at home) which can be spent on whatever the student wishes.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
4.	You have to start repaying your loans when you're earning over £20,000. No, you only start repaying your loan when you start earning over £25,000. You only repay a 9% of the amount you earn over £25,000. You also don't pay anything until the April after you finish your degree.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
5.	University stops you from getting work experience. No, whilst at university you can work part-time or volunteer in your free time. A number of courses include a placement.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
6.	You can live at home whilst studying at university. Yes and you are still eligible to a reduced maintenance loan which can cover the costs of food and books.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
7.	You have to do A levels to go to university. No, you can do a combination of a variety of A levels and BTECs.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
8.	You can only study one subject at university. No, you can usually combine subjects. This is called a joint honours or even triple honours. Examples are PPE (politics, philosophy and economics) or three languages.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
9.	It is possible for you to get free money (which you don't have to repay) when you go to university. Yes, there are bursaries based on personal circumstances and scholarships which are given for talents and academic achievements.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
10.	University is only for rich people. No, university is for everyone regardless of income. There is free money available (such as bursaries and scholarships) from many different organisations to encourage students from all backgrounds to progress to higher education.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>